Epiphany Gifts For many years at St

Hilda's we have kept up this tradition – these are donations to help us purchase essential items such as Communion wafers, Incense, Charcoal and Candles. If you would like to help St Hilda's by offering an Epiphany gift then this will be greatly received from 9th January

Silver Circle. The last four winners from 2021 were Maryrose, June Thompson, Carole and Peggy. Congratulations to the four winners.

Maryrose has handed over the running of the Silver Circle to Carole. Carole would like to thank Maryrose for all the work she has put in with fundraising activity since its inception, we at St Hilda's are truly grateful for all she has done. Thank you Maryrose from the bottom of our hearts. Payment is now due for 2022 – £10 for the year or 20p per week for each number you hold. If you are not in the Silver Circle then please see Carole and she will allocate a number for you.

Thought for the week – “Strive for progress not perfection”
