Prayers for the week. These are published daily on the website and also on our church Facebook page.

Just in case you are not able to access these, then I have copied last Thursdays here. This is what we prayed for as a Parish on that day. It also includes the thought for the week and at present because we are in the Season of Lent Scripture readings

Today we pray for:

For this Parish: For all our volunteers

For the wider church: The Manchester Diocese

For the wider community of our parish particularly the residents of Beaufort Street and Park View Road

For the Wider World: For peace in the world particularly in the Ukraine

For those in need: For those on our prayer list here at St Hilda's

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer and let our cry come unto thee
Amen

Thought for the week!

Those who leave everything in God's hand eventually see God's hand in everything

Week two – Thursday 17th March

Justice as shared responsibility

"Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation."
